

What Are Some "Everyday" Ways I Can Volunteer?

If you have a 15-30 minute time slot...

- *pray for the teens & leaders (a list of names is available upon request)
- *write a note, email, or post a message on MySpace to a teen
- *call a teen
- *bring a teen to/from church (especially visitors)
- *encourage a youth leader
- *tell people about our youth group & invite them

If you have a 1-2 hour time slot...

- *write several notes, emails, etc. to teens
- *call several teens
- * bring a teen to/from church (especially visitors)
- * tell people about our youth group & invite them
- *attend a youth event
- *take a teen (or teens) out for ice cream
- *make a snack for the youth to enjoy
- *contact and encourage another parent

If you have more than a 2 hour time slot...

- *do some of the above
- *invite a teen's family over to eat
- *represent the youth by volunteering at the teen's schools & activities
- *help find ways your teen can raise money for youth events
- *offer to babysit the youth pastor's kids during youth events
