Biography

Say "hello" to Leo and their fresh new rock 'n roll sound! With warm smiles and down-to-earth personas, the guys of Leo are energetic, fun performers that connect with listeners each and every time, leaving them entertained, uplifted and inspired.

Leo's Lead Singer, David Duffield says, "What we are aspiring to do is write and sing songs that will express a real sense of God's love to young hearts and minds across the world." Ben Kasica of SKILLET (grammy award winning band) says: "Leo is a pop/rock band with heart. When you dig into their catchy songs, they will move you..."

In May 2009 Leo went on the "Summer of Color Tour" playing shows in Illinois, Nebraska, Colorado & California. Every single venue on the entire tour said they would have Leo back again, some of the venues said Leo was the best band they had ever hosted. Jayelle Mangless youth pastor from Grand Junction Colorado said this...

"My staff and I loved working with a band with such a great attitude and humble spirit. You guys really made the night a ton of fun. Our kids adored you guys! We were excited about the 40 kids that accepted the Lord as a result of our ministry together! We are open to scheduling something anytime you guys are passing through our way! "

At a Leo show, crowds often find themselves jumping up and down and singing along. But that doesn't mean Leo is all hype, They know how to slow down and express their heart to the audience: "God loves you and His Love is unfailling and its so real." So...from the Rock n' Roll to the message then sweeping up into a chorus of "How Great is our God," A Leo show is a memorable experience that will exite and encourage young hearts.

The guys from Leo are passionate about Mission work and helping impoverished children, traveling around the world with Teen Mania Missions & Acquire the Fire Youth Events. They have recently becoming sponor Artists for COMPASSION International. (Other Compassion artists have included Jeremy Camp and Micheal W. Smith) Leo was also recently featured this June at Michigan's Big Ticket Festival '09 alongside artists such as Switchfoot, Family Force 5, Newsboys, & David Crowder Band.

These guys are cool to hang out with and would love to come play at your youth group, camp, venue or festival!
