

YOUTH HAPPENINGS

www.generation246.com

Dear Church Family,

May is finally here. We've survived all the events surrounding Easter, Spring Break, and DNow. As a youth pastor, this is typically the craziest month, so I'm excited for what lies ahead. As I look ahead, I see many exciting things happening within our church. If you haven't yet taken a peek at our church calendar, make sure you do. This is going to be a month filled with yard sales, church dinners, ministry fairs, guest speakers, ladies' events, softball, and more. Wow.

But, for our teens, May means something different. It is the end of a school year. It means the last chance to make a positive impact for Christ on their peers. This thought will drive what is taught over the next few weeks as we pray that our teens will be "lights" in their schools. Please pray with me that each of us will be able to look back at May as the month we were "lights" for Christ.

Matthew 5:14
