

YOUTH HAPPENINGS

Dear Church Family,

Ok...raise your hand if your family has been struck by the “swine flu” or some other illness over the past month. Chances are, most of you have been affected in some way by an illness. Some of you missed work or school. Some of you even might have had to pick up the slack from someone who was sick. Either way, you probably had to get “uncomfortable” this past month. On the opposite and spiritual side, many of us get the “spiritual flu” this time of year. We slack in our passion for Christ and find ourselves “getting comfortable” in our Christian walk. Last month and this month, we are challenging the teens (and you as well) to get “uncomfortable” this month by being bold about your faith. Maybe this means sharing your faith. Maybe this means making a change in your relationships. Maybe this could even mean taking a stand against sin in your own life.

Do something with me this month. Next time you hear about the “swine flu”, ask yourself if you are being guilty of having the “spiritual flu”. Let’s enter into this upcoming holiday season with a passion for our Savior!

In Christ,
